Registration Opens for Annual Governor's Conference on Energy and the Environment Event returns to Lexington

FRANKFORT, Ky. (Aug. 26, 2014) – Online registration is underway for the 38th Governor's Conference on Energy and the Environment, sponsored each year by the Kentucky Energy and Environment Cabinet (EEC). The conference is Oct. 7-8 at the Lexington Convention Center, 430 W. Vine Street.

"Cabinet staff is finalizing an agenda that will be relevant in discussing today's energy and environmental challenges," said EEC Secretary Len Peters. "New Source Performance Standards, brownfield development, sustainable streams, urban forestry and reforestation, resource planning, and infrastructure challenges are a few topics that will be discussed among leaders in the fields of energy, government and academia. I'm excited to listen to our expert panelists discuss these issues and more."

Early-bird prices for those who register before Monday, Sept. 8 are $175 for the full conference; $110 for day one; and $85 for day two. After Sept. 8, conference prices increase to $200 for the full conference; $125 for day one; and $100 for day two.

The conference includes an exhibit hall for vendors wishing to display energy and environment-related products and services. Vendors and attendees may register and pay online at <http://eec.ky.gov/Pages/conference.aspx>. The exhibition fee is $300 and includes one full registration.

Cancellations and refund requests must be received in writing to Ricki.gardenhire@ky.gov by Sept. 22, 2014. Organizations can make personnel substitutions for employees who are registered but unable to attend the conference.
